SECOND HALF. FINAL SCORE.

about equal in strength and Penna's

FIRST HALF.

Penn won the toss, and elected to defend the west goal, putting a strong wind against Cornell. Walter kicked off for Cornell to Greene, who caught the ball on the 15-yard line and came back 5 yards before Roadhouse downed him. Penn made two tries at the Corneli-right wing, but couldn't make an inch, line. On the first try Halliday got between Lamson and Scarlet for 10 yards, but on a fumble Cornell lost the ball. Folwell and Robinson in two trys got through the Cornell line for 10 yards and on the third try Robinson made it first down for Penn on Cornell's 30-yard line. Greene tried to go around Van Allman's The steamship Friedrich der Grosse end, but was thrown back for a loss. Sheble, however, made up for it by after a stormy voyage, having encountered high sees and gales throughout 15 yards. On a tandem play Rooke the greater part of the voyage.
